ROLLINS CREATES NEW DIVISION

A Division of Economics and Business Administration at Rollins has been added to the College curriculum coordinate with the existing divisions of English, Language, Science, Human Relations, Expressive Arts and Health and Physical Education. The purpose of this new division is to give a thorough grounding in the fundamentals of the economic and industrial society in which students are going to live and work and to technically train the substantial percentage of students entering commercial and industrial fields of endeavor upon graduation. It will also offer business essentials to those preparing for interrelated careers.

Today, more than ever before, the nation looks to its colleges and universities to turn out a larger number of soundly educated young men and women capable of leadership in this Atomic Age. America needs to achieve higher levels of production, employment and social welfare. We need to progress along these lines not only for ourselves but in order to deal intelligently with the widespread economic chaos and suffering in other lands if we are to promote world order and prosperity. Sensible to this vital challenge to the American economic system Rollins has taken prompt action.

A cosmopolitan liberal arts college, Rollins has long recognized its responsibility in providing education in this field, and for years has had a strong department of Economics and Business Administration. Last year, however, approximately 20% of over 600 students at Rollins were business majors and the overload on this department made difficult the maintenance of the Conference Plan in classes. Some courses for which there was an active demand could not be given at all. And it became impossible to encourage students majoring in other subjects to take even the desirable minimum of work in economics and business practice. The organization of a separate Division of Economics and Business Administration is a definite step to meet an increasing demand greatly accelerated by the influx of returning war veterans.

THE ROLLINS ALUMNI RECORD

VOL. XXV, No. III

SEPTEMBER, 1947

The Rollins Alumni Record, September, 1947. Published Quarterly by Rollins College in March, June, September and December. Office of publication: Alumni House, Winter Park, Florida. Entered as second-class matter June 28, 1938, at the post office at Winter Park, Florida, under the Act of August 24, 1912.

FACULTY WITNESS DESCRIBES SCENE AT HISTORIC U. N. SESSION

By PROFESSOR FLORA LINDSAY MAGOUN

It was thrilling to be one of just seven hundred people in all the world privileged to attend the session of the General Assembly of the United Nations on September 17, when Secretary of State George Marshall presented the policy of the United States of America. Dr. Evelyn Newman, professor of English Literature at Rollins 1931-39, preceded me into the hall by a few minutes and I was happy in the thought that she was sharing this wonderful experience; and that I could see Count Jehan de Noue, professor of French Civilization at Rollins 1941-42, going tirelessly about in the performance of his duties as United Nations Chief of Protocol.

An air of expectancy pervaded the hall as General Marshall strode briskly to the rostrum, spread out his papers, adjusted his glasses and began to read in serious, measured tones the speech that was to act as a bombshell.

There was no interruption of his talk but generous applause greeted him both before and after he spoke. Headsets provided delegates and spectators with simultaneous translation and gave a quiet earnestness to the listeners' appearances.

In Florida, a hurricane swept across the state from Miami to Ft. Myers; but the flags of fifty-five nations were bright with promise in the warm sunshine at Flushing Meadows on this memorable day.

LIBRARY RECEIVES W. A. GIVEN COLLECTION

In July 265 valuable books from the library of the late W. A. Given of Orlando and Pittsburgh were presented to Rollins College by his son and daughter. According to present plans the books will be placed in a special rare book room when the Mills Memorial Library is completed.

This valuable gift in memory of their father was given by William N. Given of Moorestown, N. J., and Mrs. Florence Given Henderson "because the Rollins Library is the one place in this vicinity where the books will best be preserved and appreciated."

Most prized of the collection is the Bible in 14 volumes. This edition was limited to 1000 sets and is bound in deep purple leather with gold tooling. The end pages are of purple silk embossed in gold.

A 12 volume set of the works of Robert Burns, limited to 50 sets, is bound in black leather with gold tooling and red satin end pages.

Other collector's items are: the Frontenac edition of the works of Francis Parkman in 17 volumes; the Iroquois edition of the works of James Fenimore Cooper in 33 volumes; the Hillcrest edition of Mark Twain's works in 25 volumes; the Montezuma edition of the historian Prescott's work in 22 volumes; the complete works of Washington Irving in 16 volumes; The Life of Sir Walter Scott in 10 volumes; and the works of Thackeray and the Earl of Beaconsfield (Disraeli).

Mr. Given, in whose memory these books were given to Rollins, came to Orlando about 20 years ago upon retiring after more than 50 years as secretary-treasurer of the Pittsburgh Dry Goods Co. He was a man of wide interests. Instrumental in organizing the National Credit Association, he served as president of the Pittsburgh Credit Association for a number of years.

FIRST POST-WAR WOODSTOCK REUNION

On August 16, the date set for our long awaited revival of the Woodstock Reunion, it rained! Wet weather notwithstanding, nearly a hundred members of the Rollins family gathered in Woodstock, Conn., for this most popular summer reunion of Rollinsites in honor of Dr. Hamilton Holt's birthday. Although the majority of them arrived in their own cars, Wallace Child '33 (who was there with his family from California) and Mr. W. A. Averill of the college staff generously met all trains and buses.

Even the youngest future Rollinsite enjoyed the picnic lunch overlooking the lake on the porch of the Roseland Park pavilion, where ice cream, pop and sandwiches were available. There was no program. President Holt just informally brought those present up to date on the progress at Rollins.

Remarkably recuperated from his serious illness last spring, Dr. Holt participated fully in the festivities. And his shower of personally delivered and wired congratulations exceeded the downpour out-of-doors.

Penny Drinkwater '50 was in charge of the registration book. Other undergraduates attending were: Gordon Tully '48; Parker Simpson '49; and Dudley Durgin and Michael Malis, both '50. The classes of '33 and '41 led in attendance. From the class of '33 there were: Wallace Child with his wife and daughter; Sylva Fell Carpenter; Kay Spelman Proctor; Constance Wetherell Peshmalyan; and Phil Horton. And '41 was represented by: Dick Wesson and wife; Clyde and Sally (Hodgdon) Jones; Frannie Montgomery Soper; and Dick Rodda with his wife. The class of '46 nearly matched their records with: John Powell, Nina Lou Fisher, Nat Felder and Nick Morrissey, Jr. Classes with 3 each there were: '35 with Frank Wetherell, Charlotte Rathbone Farr, and Ariel Camp Horton with their son; '36 with Lucy Greene Woolston with her son and mother, Leah Bartlett Lasbury, and Sterling Olmsted with his wife and mother; and '42 with Erika Heyder Boyd, Helen Darling Johnson and daughter, and Daphne Takach Powell. Classes with 2 each were: '31 with Bob Proctor and George Holt; '32 with Phyrne Squier Russell and Betty Rathbone Scudder; '38 with George Gabriel and wife, and Opal Peters Wilkerson and husband; '39 with John Clark and Bill Bingham; and '40 with Bob Johnson and wife and Bob Carter and his wife. Other classes were represented by: Col. and Mrs. George M. King, Gay 90's; Fred Hanna '17 and wife; Ray Greene '23; Ralph Gibbs '37; F. A. Bowes '43; Phil Reed '44; and Jessie McCreery Reed '45.

Rollins Faculty present were: Dr. and Mme. Wu-chi Liu with their daughter; Dr. Helen Moore; and Dr. A. J. Hanna and wife, Dr. Kathryn Abbey Hanna.

Dr. Holt's family was well represented by: Mrs. Leila Holt Rotival with Denise and Sandy Holt Rotival; George Holt; Miss Constance Holt; Mr. Henry C. Holt; Mary B. Holt; and Mayan C. Holt.

Other guests including College Staff, entering students with their families, and friends were: Miss Winifred Gwyn Jeffreys; Mr. W. A. Averill; Dr. and Mrs. Roger Shaw; Robert Brott; Margaret Woodbury; Pauline Bowen Essaye; Elizabeth B. Gwyn; Lucy Lythge; Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester H. Bingham; Everett J. Lake; Barbara Lincoln Lake; Joan Lincoln Al-belle; Mrs. George Lincoln; Julian B. Schatz; Madeline A. Schatz; Dick Schatz; Whitcombe Simpson; W. W. Aveult; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Porter; Joan Weisman; and Johnson Tai.

New Administration Building

Around The Horseshoe

by ANN REINER '47

Everything is buzzing around the Horseshoe as the opening of the fall term approaches. Construction on Orlando Hall and the Algernon Sydney Sullivan building is speeding up but their dates of completion are anyone's guess. The roofing tile is all ready to go on the Sullivan building and Orlando Hall's second story is on its way up.

The new Administration Building is beginning to have that lived-in look. And Corrin Hall's furnishing is being completed for the arrival of Independent women. This newest dormitory is located on French Ave., between Strong Hall and Lake Virginia. Soft greens predominate in the interior color scheme. Every student's room is furnished with matching modern desks, bureaus and beds. And the tile baths which are to be shared by 4 girls each are most attractive.

The campus is back to normal this year with men in Chase Hall again. Lakeside will be taken over by the Alpha Phis. As the buildings sprout up this year and in the future the Rollins ideal of plenty of elbow room for everybody should be realized.

The Alumni Office has kept going all summer amid construction noises and the dubious help of this new alum. We discovered John Twachtman was working for the Orange Press in Winter Park, when he returned the cuts for the June RECORD. Tim Tyler, Buddy Bryson, and Ed Acree, of our class too, have been seen in and out of Doc's and the Colony. And Becky Hill came by before leaving for her new job at Oak Ridge.

The summer registry of alumni visitors to the Alumni House includes: Verges Van Wickle of Coconut Grove, Fla.; Paul B. Welch, Jr., of St. Louis, Mo.; Becky Caldwell of Lake Wales, Fla.; Damaris Wilson of Jacksonville,

TARS TACKLE '47 SCHEDULE WITH PRE-SEASON TRAINING

Our 1947 Homecoming Game on November 28 with Ohio Wesleyan promises to be a thriller. According to the OHIO WESLEYAN MAGAZINE, "Coach McDowall's team forgot their southern hospitality for a few hours and handed the Red and Black a 21-13 setback under the lights at the Orlando Municipal Stadium" last year. The Bishop gridders are a Southeastern Conference team.

Football tickets went on sale Monday, Sept 8, and here's a tip. If you want good seats for all or any one of the Tars' five home games, make your reservations pronto. Tickets are selling like the proverbial hot cakes.

Best seats, between the forty-yard lines, are selling for $2.40 — last year's price. Other reserved seats are going for $1.80. Or you can buy a book of season tickets for the price of four games.

Alumni are urged to send applications for seats directly to the Athletic Office, Carnegie Hall, Rollins College, Winter Park, Fla. Or, if you live near the campus call Winter Park 94. By dealing directly with Jack McDowall's office you will be assured of prompt service.

As to football prospects this fall, Jack is making his usual predictions — none. However, reports are sifting back from Brevard, N. C., where the Tars are undergoing pre-season workouts at Alex Waite's Eagle's Nest Camp.

One is that there is a whole album full of new faces. Of 43 candidates, all but 8 are either sophomores or freshmen. This means that Jack has launched a rebuilding program. It should show results this year and payoff in a big way in 1948 and 1949.

However, there are a few familiar faces around the premises. Sam Hardman, the 1940 scatback, is back in college and is as rabbit-footed as ever. When you remember that the lack of a breakaway runner put a few grey hairs in Jack's head last fall, that IS good news.

Then there are other pre-war gridmen. Ralph and Burke Chisholm will perform at end and center respectively; Dave Clark, doing business at his old stand at tackle; Gene Chizik, the watch-charm guard; and Cal Peacock, tops at either spinner back or left wing back.

The squad did not sweat it out alone in North Carolina. A delegation of fans headed by Dean Enyart, Riley Jones and Don Cheney welcomed the boys when they trotted on the field for the first session. Alumni in that area also dropped by to get the dope on the Tars from the source.

The Tars got the feel of things when they engaged Appalachian in a practice scrimmage during the first 10 days. The first game was scheduled with Erskine at Anderson, S. C., on Sept. 27. The team was returned to Winter Park on Sept. 28 in time for the opening of college the next day.

McDowall is receiving plenty of outside support from the newly formed Tar Boosters Inc., which is promoting all Rollins athletics — football, tennis, baseball and crew. Bob Hayes, president of our Alumni Association, was instrumental in organizing the group, while Dean Enyart took an active part. Among its members are many of the prominent men of Central Florida.

Guild of Winter Park, Fla.; Ellsworth and Ione (Pope) Bassett of Arlington, Va.; and Ollie Bandy of Lakeland, Fla.

There is rejoicing that Prexy has recovered from his serious illness last spring. He was on hand to greet everyone at the Woodstock Reunion on August 16.

The Pelican was closed during September for remodelling. It should be in fine shape for the warm week-ends this fall.

Sandy Caldwell installed a coke machine in the campus post office for the summer which kept the working staff revived. All that was needed was a supply of nickels without which the machine wouldn't work!

The deluge of over 600 old and new students is a couple of weeks off as we write. But the faculty has started to return for their first meeting on September 29. Orientation and registration of new students follows until former students register on October 2. Only the most sentimental alumni will envy them the chore of registration. Do you remember the complete and utter bewilderment of those forms?

Dean Enyart left for Brevard, N. C., early in September to be on hand when the football team arrived for pre-season training a little before Coach McDowall boarded a plane for the same objective. The only difference was the Dean was flying low!

If the teams are as evenly matched as they were last year we'll have another exciting football season. Speaking of football, don't miss the Homecoming Game on November 28. When the Tars met Ohio Wesleyan last year it turned out to be the most spectacular home game they played. So remember the date and make your plans NOW to be here!

LES TAYLOR GIVES ALUMNI THEATER PARTY

On August 3, a congenial gathering of Rollins alumni enjoyed an afternoon picnic and buffet supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Taylor in Canton, Conn. Alumni in that vicinity received printed invitations to attend several weeks before from Jack Clark '39, co-Alumni Council member for District V.

Following the informal afternoon and evening affairs, Les Taylor '27 invited all present to be his guests at a performance of the popular Broadway play, My Sister Eileen, in his Show Shop Summer Theater in the bar at the rear of his residence on the Albany Turnpike. Among those enjoying this pleasant occasion were: Richard and Virginia (Boyd) Ingraham of Bristol, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd II of West Hartford, Conn.; Philip and Eleanor (Wilcox) Roberts of Durham, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stoner of Canton, Conn.; Jack Clark of Bridgeport, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wetherell of Ashford, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sears of Woodstock, Conn.; and their hosts.

She sailed on the Queen Mary on August 8. After the convention she was to visit friends in England, France and Italy.

Two former faculty members have been promoted to full professorships at Whitman College in Walla Walla, Wash., which is headed by Dr. Winslow S. Anderson, President, former Dean of Rollins College.

They are: Dr. Charles J. Armstrong, Dean of Administration at Whitman, who has been appointed Clement Biddle Penrose Professor of Latin; and Dr. William L. Hutchings, who has been named Alexander Jay Anderson Professor of Mathematics. The Penrose chair is named in memory of the late Judge Penrose of Philadelphia, father of the late President Emeritus S. B. L. Penrose of Whitman, and the Anderson chair in memory of Whitman's first president.

In Memoriam

Mrs. Robert S. Pollard (Elinor Emery) died on June 2, 1947. Mrs. Pollard attended Rollins College 1916-17 and received her A.B. degree at Wellesley in 1919. Her son, Sabin, has just returned from military service and will re-enter Rollins this fall.

Mrs. Belle K. Russell, former Chi Omega House Mother at Rollins, died at her home in Cape Elizabeth, Me., on June 7, 1947.

General Charles McCormick Reeve, recipient of the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Medallion at Rollins and winter resident in Winter Park for many years, died on June 24, 1947, at his Lake Minnetonka, Minn., summer home. General Reeve would have been 100 years old on August 7. He was Yale's oldest living graduate and that University set up a General Reeve collection of books in the Rollins library in his honor. It is through his generosity that the General Reeve Essay Contest for Men and the General Reeve Scholarship Awards have been offered annually. When bestowing the Sullivan Medallion upon him in 1944, Dr. Hamilton Holt said to him, in part: "—servant of the world in law, in business, in philanthropy, — made Brigadier General for gallant and meritorious service in the Battle of Manila — first Military Chief of Police of Manila — traveller, author, lover of his fellowmen — in character and ideals of conduct you fulfil in full measure the high ethical standards symbolized by the Medallion. May it be a source of pride and satisfaction to you who have so fought the good fight and so kept the faith."

On June 25, Dr. Albert Shaw (HON. 1927) died. Editor and founder of THE AMERICAN REVIEW OF REVIEWS, he maintained residences in both Winter Park, Fla., and Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y. Dr. Shaw was an author of international reputation and was writing a biography of Woodrow Wilson at the time of his death. He delivered one of the first editorials for the Rollins Animated Magazine and appeared as a contributor in several subsequent editions. He is survived by his wife, Virginia (McCall '35) Shaw; 2 sons, Albert and Roger Shaw (HON. 1945); and 4 grandchildren.

Mrs. L. C. Algee (Mary Hardaway) passed away on July 15, 1947, in Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. Algee held an A.B. degree from Rollins, having attended our former Academy and College 1896-1904. Besides her husband, she is survived by a son, Captain L. S. Algee of Orlando, and 2 grandsons.

Mr. George L. Benedict, who attended the former Rollins Academy 1894-98, died on July 24, 1947. He retired in 1938 and made his home in Wellesley, Mass., but was in West Palm Beach, Fla., where he and his wife were planning to buy a home at the time of his death.

On August 2, 1947, Sadie S. Pellerin died in Jacksonville, Fla. She attended Rollins College for 4 years and received her B.S. degree in 1918. An active and loyal alumnus, she attended several events on campus last winter until her final illness.

Their memories will be honored at the Annual Alumni Verper Service in Knowles Memorial Chapel in February.

CLASS NOTES

Gay Nineties

Secretary: Rev. Henry B. Mowbray, 442 Chase Ave., Winter Park, Fla.

Mrs. Caroline Hills Abbott, who joined the Rollins faculty the second year after our college was founded and taught until 1916, passed the century mark in her life on July 9. Family, friends and neighbors know her as "Dearma" and gathered in scores that day at Abbottsford, her home next to Huckleberry Mt. Artists' Colony in Hendersonville, N. C. Extra benches and tables were arranged to serve punch and cake on the lawn.

But as her daughter, Mrs. Belle (Birdie Abbott '94A) Roxby, so aptly wrote: "When all was ready outside . . . it rained! Not a little spattering but a small deluge of wet water over everything except the guests who ran in between lulls."

The mike and loudspeaker were installed inside the house, where Mrs. Abbott received, wearing black satin and a lace collar with a delicate many colored scarf over her short white curls. Alert and interested in each greeting she responded wittily. As each photographer's flash light bulb went off she exclaimed over so much being made over her, but delighted listeners by reciting in full a long poem learned in her childhood, recalled visiting her brothers in army camps during the Civil War and commented on events in the early 90's.

Tom Brenaman, of the Breakfast in Hollywood radio program, sent Mrs. Abbott an orchid. And among her gifts and flowers from former pupils was a lovely mixed bouquet from Frank Sloaterman '09A of La Jolla, Calif.

Her granddaughter, Evelyn Haynes '22, read Mrs. Abbott cards, telegrams and messages from relatives, friends, pupils of her Abbott's Private School in Orlando and Rollins College.

Dr. Edwin O. Grover, vice-president of Rollins and a member of the Huckleberry Mt. Artists' Colony, presented Mrs. Abbott again with her Decoration of Honor, bestowed in 1936 at Rollins in her 89th year.

The members of Huckleberry collected green leaves for a wheel chair to take their Dearma out in the sunshine this summer.

And Vivian Laramore Rader, Poet Laureate of Florida and teacher of poetry at the Huckleberry Mt. Workshop-Camp, read her own beautiful poem, For A Centenarian, for the occasion.

Mrs. Abbott "sends her thanks to each and every one of you."

We are delighted that Sam G. Moyers has changed his residence from N. Y. City to 52 E. Concord Ave. in Orlando.

Your secretary drove to N. Y. City last June before attending his 50th Class Reunion at Oberlin College. One place revisited before returning to Winter Park was Piedmont College, Demorest, Ga., where Mrs. D. B. Atkinson (Ruth Ford) still teaches mathematics and I was College Pastor and also taught for 8 years before retiring.

Class of 1923

Secretary: Ray Greene, 252 Chase Ave., Winter Park, Fla.

We're very grateful to Easter Russell and hope other classmates will show her spirit. She "read the June issue from 'kivver to kivver' . . . but was not a little disappointed to find no news of the Class of '23." So she does her part by writing us that she completed her fourth year as a Special Agent for the N. Y. Life Insurance Co. in Miami on July 1. And Dot Davis '30 thoughtfully clipped and sent in an article on Easter from a series on career women, which appeared in the Miami Daily News on August 3. From this we learned that Easter was the only woman agent in the State of Florida who qualified for the trip to N. Y. City for her company's centennial celebration last April. Appropriate observation of this event was deferred for 2 years because of the war and the still crowded conditions last year. "I flew up and back," she wrote, "because my mother had been seriously ill in March and I was still too anxious about her to be long away from home. She is recovered now, but of course has to take things pretty easy yet." Easter is also busy as the first president of the Soroptimist Club of Coral Gables, which was chartered on June 18.

Ruth Rowley Hotard is living at 340 8th

St. in Lorain, O., where she is dietician for the Lorain High School.

Francis R. Bridges, Jr., addressed the 10th Annual District Conference of Rotary International at Daytona Beach, Fla., last spring.

We have heard again from Robert ("Pop") Donaldson. He is now located in Cherry Tree, Pa., where he is Supervising Principal in the Public Schools.

Now we'd like to hear from the rest of you.

Ed. Note: Your correspondent has returned to Winter Park and has been practicing here since May. His office is at 157 E. New England Ave. and he is on duty at the College Infirmary daily for stated hours. Walter was in N. C. for a short vacation in September and enjoyed looking in on our Tars in pre-season training up there.

Class of 1925

Secretary: Rebecca Caldwell, Lake Wales, Fla.

Trillis Wesseler Windom (Mrs. Wm. H.) frequently visits the Alumni House, but not until this summer did we learn about some of the interesting things she and her family have been doing. Her son William is still with the American Air Corps in Germany as a radio operator. Warren, her second son, sent some lovely gifts home this summer from Italy, where he is serving on the Morgan Line. After trips to London and Paris, both boys hope to get together soon in Lyons, France, where they were born. Her youngest son, Towne, is a senior and on the football team at the Winter Park High School. He won a plane ride this summer when he appeared on the Studio Houseparty over radio station WORZ. Her young daughter Esther is already planning to attend Rollins when she finishes high school. And her husband has moved his insurance business with Ray Greene '23 into the attractive new office building Ray has built in Winter Park.

Trillis visited her sister in Wash., D. C., for a week early in July. While there she enjoyed talking to Henry Anderson '93 over the telephone. He is in good health and still enjoys canoe trips on the Potomac she says.

Edwina Parkinson spent a few days with Guy and Dickie (Dickson) Colado in Winter Park on her way down to tour Mexico for a month. Eddie lives in Wash., D. C., and is as attractive as ever.

Class of 1926

After living on Maitland Drive for so many years, Guy and Dickie (Dickson '27) Colado have moved to 2110 Mizell Ave., in Winter Park. Daughters Winkie and Buzzie and small son Guy are enthusiastic about their new home. This will be Guy's fourth year as Coach at Cherokee Jr. High School in Orlando.

Class of 1927

Secretary: Mrs. Rodman Lehman (Kay Lewis), 772 Maryland Ave., Winter Park, Fla.

Lt. Col. Chick Lawrence, who is still with the Judge Advocate General's Service of the U. S. Army, has returned to the States and is living in Wash., D. C.

Katherine Faulkner Brooks dropped by the Alumni House for a short visit in July. She had been travelling with friends on the West Coast of Fla. and was returning to her mother's home in Asheville, N. C., where she has been living since her husband's death.

Harold Daniels and his wife visited the Ken Winslows in Winter Park for a few days in August. They were on a hurried trip to Fla. going on down to see the Bartlett family in Ft. Myers before returning to their home in Detroit. We're not sure of the name of the government agency that Hal is with, but during the war it was the War Labor Relations Board.

We hear that Bea Jones Woodward and her husband have remodeled the old home in Waynesville, N. C., and have one of the most attractive Inns in that part of the country.

Billie Freeman Greene and her family were at Buck Hill Falls, Pa., again this summer. But with both daughters away at college and Ray, Jr., entering prep school now, Billie is off to So. America for the winter.

Dickie Dickson Colado conducted both Brownie and Girl Scout day camps this summer. She will continue with her Scout work this winter, while Guy is busy coaching. The Colados gave up going to Anna Maria Beach for their usual vacation because of the "red tide" and stayed in Winter Park this summer, part of which they spent moving and getting settled at their new address. (See Class of 1926). Winkie, eldest of the 3 children enters junior high school this month.

Class of 1928

Before boarding the Queen Elizabeth on September 18 for England, Annie Campbell visited her sister in Winter Park and we learned for the first time of her worthwhile career. Having earned her M.A. degree in 1930 at the Hartford Seminary Foundation's School of Religious Education, Annie studied for another year at the Chicago Theological Seminary and was ordained in Wadley, Ala., in 1942. She will be in Liverpool until Christmas and in Lancashire through March as pastor's assistant and youth worker.

Barbara Sheffield has decided to come back East. She is teaching in the Hillsdale Country Day School, in Cinn., O., now.

Your secretary and wife Nancy (Rohling '35) vacationed at Fontana Dam while our 10 year old, "Buck", was at Camp Carolina, N. C., with Fleet Peeples.

Class of 1929

Secretary: Nancy Brown, 311 N. Piedmont St., Arlington, Va.

Frank Abbott visited Rollins in July to show his charming wife, Jeannette, around the campus for the first time. Jeannette thought the effect of the Mediterranean buildings was lovely and was especially interested to see the "Dinky" Line. The Abbott's were vacationing in Naples, Fla.

Southern College. This summer he flew to Guatemala for a month joining Dr. Ludd S. Spivey, president of Southern College, and two other faculty members in conducting a study travel group of 30 American teachers from eight different states. Ollie will continue his successful directing of The Spanish Institute at Ga.'s Oglethorpe University.

Dr. and Mrs. Bill Jennings enjoyed a wonderful vacation in Canada this summer. They stayed at both Banff and Lake Louise.

Class of 1930

Secretary: Clara Adolfs, Rollins College, Winter Park, Fla.

It seemed natural to have Mazzie Wilson back on campus, if only for a few days, last June. She is enthusiastic about her work at Syracuse Univ. but misses our Fla. climate.

Ethel Hahn Comfort (Mrs. Harvey H.) and her daughters Jane and Mary enjoying a visit from Sarah Huey Lewis (Mrs. Barney M.) and her sons Eugene and Harvie last spring.

The Post Office has certainly done a poor job this summer of delivering cards and notes telling us about your vacations — or should we blame the poor mail carriers?

One postal did manage to come all the way from Oakland, California, where Chet and Lib Ihrig were visiting his family. It also told about the advent of Alfred Lang into the family about the first of the year. We can bet that Butch is glad to have a brother. Congratulations! After looking over the West Coast state, the Ihrigs think they like Florida better.

We're wondering if Verna Maxson Balentine has changed her mind about the two states since last year. Anyhow she and husband, Matt, visited the Sunshine State on their vacation. Disappointed, time didn't permit them to stop long enough to say hello. In June Verna represented Rollins at the inauguration of the new president of the College of the Pacific. She enjoyed the occasion, all except the temperature which cooled off to 98° at the time of the ceremony.

It is good to report that Dr. Cyrus Sharpe, husband of Janet Cadman, has regained his sight and is able to practice again. The family spent their vacation up in North Carolina again this year.

Betty Wheatly Johnson and her husband had a wonderful trip as far west as Las Vegas, Nev. They still have their house and car, so guess they didn't fool around with "Lady Luck" of that wide open spot.

At last a card comes from John Eldred Armstrong — Remarks: Hello! Occupation: Librarian (in charge); Business Address: Municipal Reference Library, Public Health Division, 125 Worth St., N.Y.C. Glad to hear from you, Jack.

And a note from Dot Davis who is spending her ten day leave at the National Hotel in Miami Beach, swimming, window shopping, acquiring additional tan, and catching up on the movies. That should fit you for another round of work Dot.

On July 1 Sarah Ethel Green Ferrel moved into her lovely new home on Lake Maitland.

Dr. Ward Mould has moved from Kansas City to Hempstead, L. I., again and we assume that he is still with the Public Health Bureau.

After 3 strenuous days at the national convention of the American Alumni Council in San Francisco in July, Aurora McKay took her month of vacation from duties as Alumni Secretary and joined Mabel Mabry '45 and her party for part of their extensive drive through the Pacific northwest. (Mabel and Aurora grew up together in Tampa and when they found each other in San Francisco it didn't take them long to decide!) Pressed to mention a few of the most memorable places they visited, Aurora named Yosemite, Crater Lake, and Mt. Ranier in the States, and Victoria and vicinity on Vancouver Island, the snow-capped Rockies in general and Banff, Lake Louise and the Columbian Icefields in particular in Canada. They went as far north as Jasper and returned to Calgary, Canada, together before Aurora took a return plane. After so much magnificent scenery she describes her first experience of seeing the Northern Lights from the air as "an extra dividend." Her only disappointment was when planes were grounded by weather later causing her to miss the Woodstock Reunion in honor of Dr. Holt's birthday.

Class of 1931

Secretary: Jewel May Lewter, 811 N. Orange Ave., Orlando, Fla.

W. H. "Froggy" Walter and his attractive wife paid the Alumni House a surprise visit late in June. One of the first friends Froggy looked up was Coach Jack McDowall.

years old. We'd like to see a picture of them in the next RECORD.

Yasuo Matsumoto, after seeing his former Rollins roommate Boyd F. Kyner '33 in Japan, wrote Dr. Holt, "Can you imagine how happy I felt?" Yasuo says: "The spirit of Democracy is now prevailing rapidly here. Although we are suffering from inflation of currencies and scarcity of foods and raw materials, still we are feeling happy for Peace restored again."

Camille, daughter of Fla. State Representative "Chubby" and Camille (Beach '30) Oelkers, won a handsome trophy for the girls' 100-yard dash in a swimming meet at the Venetian Pool in Coral Gables, Fla., on September 3.

Hopes to use some of that Spanish he learned at Rollins. Phil is still with the Corn Exchange Bank Trust Co. in New York.

Wally Child was seen at the reunion in Woodstock, after a flying trip from California where he makes his home. Mrs. Child and daughter accompanied him. Wally has changed little except on his noble dome.

Your secretary spent a weekend in Mass. with Charlotte Rathbone '35 (Mrs. Gilmore Lloyd Farr) and her family of man and two boys. She saw Betty Rathbone Scudder '32 and she too has a family of two — boy and girl.

Class of 1934

Secretary: Burleigh Drummond, P. O. Box 4808, Atlanta 2, Ga.

In 1943 we were all impressed by the excellent reviews and the recommendation of the Book-of-the-Month Club on Bucklin Moon's The Darker Brother. Well, Buck has done it again! His new book The High Cost of Prejudice is reviewed by Milton R. Konwitz in the SATURDAY REVIEW OF LITERATURE June 14, 1947. The book promises to open the eyes of not a few church and laymen. In essence it says that morally and economically the cost of prejudice in our segregation-ridden land is unbelievably prohibitive.

Bill Mosteller is stationed at the Sub Base in Key West, Fla., and 1307 Division St. is his home address now.

Phyrne Squier Russell '32 writes: "Some Rollinsites distinguish themselves in one way — some in another!" The clipping enclosed described in detail Maurice C. Dreicer's unusual forte which is steak-testing. Maurice is a professional gourmet who has eaten steaks in 764 restaurants in 41 states. One of his criteria for a nearly perfect steak is that it cut like butter, so his seal of approval has become a silver butter knife. Less than a dozen restaurants throughout the country have received his butter knife award.

"Cuca" McKay Burnette (Mrs. Guy) and her husband enjoyed real southern hospitality on their vacation trip this summer. First they visited his mother in Virginia and then they visited her sister and brother-in-law, Mary Jane (McKay '36) and Jack Ott '35 in Kentucky. Lt. Col. Burnette is stationed in Florida at Eglin Field.

Congratulations to Dr. Joseph C. Howell, Jr., on his recent marriage to Candace Smith in Stillwater, Okla., on September 3.

Ed. Note: We are indebted to your talented classmate, Milford Davis, for the following quotable quotes: "My reason for dropping you this note is to advise that we have finally developed the nucleus of a first-class Rollins Alumni Club here on the Univ. of New Mexico campus . . . I have been assistant director of Information here since June and may stay on for the regular school year beginning September. All that I am I owe to my early impressionable years spent with the Rollins Public Relations office . . . We have with us, also, in the College of Fine Arts, one June Nelson '49, who came here for the summer session and plans to get her degree in art here. She is a winsome, gay young thing, currently enjoying her role as house manager, chief prop man, and errand girl for a new experimental theatre group presenting plays in Albuquerque. Also, just arrived on campus to become assistant professor of piano is none other than Morton Schoenfeld, accompanied by his wife, Mary Upchurch, (both '43) and their 2 children. He comes well heralded as one of the country's ranking young pianists, and we are most happy to have him join our family circle"

We hope for more of your exuberant copy, Milford, and thanks for the picture of the Schoenfeld babies.

Johnny would like to hear about any industries that might be interested in locating there.

Our exchange student from France (1936-37), Andre Billy, says hearing from a fellow Rollinsite brought back "a flood of wonderful memories." Andre earned his M.A. degree in English after leaving Rollins. Then the war broke out and he was mobilized. "Leaving Cadet School in April 1940, I commanded a tank platoon until I was captured by the Germans in May," he says. "Then my life is nearly a blank for five years until I was liberated and returned to France in June 1945." In November of that year he started teaching English at Sedan, but went to England the following January as a translator with the European Central Inland Transport Organization. There he married an English girl he had met seven years before. In June his organization moved to Paris. After a few months he returned to his job of teaching at Sedan. "Last April a son, Vaughan, was born to us," Andre writes. Then he hesitatingly tells us, "there are many things which we lack and miss, but soap is the worst. And possessing no American currency, I cannot buy them." Can you imagine the difficulties of caring for baby clothes on the soap ration in France today? To facilitate your sending any small parcel, here is the address: M. Andre Billy, Saint-Bernard, Sedan, Ardennes, France.

ROLLINS PLATES AGAIN AVAILABLE AT PREWAR PRICES!

The first postwar shipment of Rollins Plates has arrived. Made by the famous Josiah Wedgwood and Sons Ltd. at their factory in Etruria, England, they have been unavailable since the beginning of World War II. However, the Boston firm which imports these plates for the Rollins Alumni Association has just delivered 35 of the 50 dozen ordered in February, 1946, to the Alumni Office.

Originally brought out in commemoration of our Semicentennial Celebration at Rollins, these handsome plates are most popular as Christmas, wedding, anniversary and graduation gifts. Ten and a quarter inches in diameter, they are equally decorative as distinctive service plates, in wall brackets or on shelves, singly or in pairs.

The Rollins Plate, which is always on exhibit in the Alumni House on campus, is produced by Wedgwood in Ivory Queensware. The decoration is done in Indian Blue from an original design hand engraved on copper.

Dominating the center of the plate is the Knowles Memorial Chapel with the Annie Russell Theater and the connecting loggias in the background. At the crest of the border is the Rollins coat of arms designed by the noted architect, Ralph Adams Cram. The inspiration for the border is derived from the Hispano-Moresque pottery which was one of the artistic achievements in Spain during the 15th and 16th centuries (the period coincident with the discovery, exploration and settlement of Florida by Ponce de Leon, Hernando de Soto and Pedro Menendez).

In spite of the anticipated rise in cost, Rollins Wedgwood Plates are still available at the former prices of: $2.00 each for individual plates; $10.00 for a half dozen, and $18.00 per dozen.

Orders will be sent express collect and filled in the order that they are received. Special arrangements may be made for prepaying gift orders and cards attached to orders will be enclosed.
